

wbcasd

ZHENJUN ZUO

Mr. Zuo is a professional engineer with extensive experience in engineering consulting, cement industry development and technologies, project assessment, and project management. Since 1992 he has worked for the China International Engineering Consulting Corporation. His recent work has focused on policy and project evaluations for the National Development and Reform Commission (NDRC) emphasizing China cement industry policy and project management procedures. Mr. Zuo also served as a member of China Cement Taskforce for Asia Pacific Partnership on Clean Development and Climate (APP), and he has extensive international working experience.